

Cures Blood Poison

A Trial Treatment Sent Free to All Who Suffer From Any Stage of the Disease.

Cures Cases That Not Springs and All Other Treatments Failed to Even Help.

There has been discovered by the State Medical Institute, 200 E. Madison Bldg., Dr. Wayne, Ind., the most remarkable blood purifier ever known. It has cured all such indications as: skin eruptions, pimples, spots, chancres, ulcers, etc., and in hundreds of cases where the hair and eyebrows had fallen out and the whole condition of the body was such that the patient was a social outcast. Every patient running into Dr. Wayne brings scores of letters from those who have been cured, and who state that they cannot travel to realize what a truly marvelous work this medicine has done for them. This is the only known cure for Blood Poison. Do not hesitate to write at once and the free trial will be sent to you in plain package.

MONEY TO LOAN

The highest amount loaned on watches, diamonds, jewelry and all articles of value. Loans made at a special rate of interest. Repayment strictly enforced. No delay in making loans.

S. VAN RAALTE & CO.,
12 and 14 S. 4th, also 213 N. 7th St.
ESTABLISHED 1874.

ST. LOUIS INFIRMARY OF OSTEOPATHY
In Charge of Dr. H. T. STILL.

407 Commercial Bldg., S. E. Cor. Olive and
Office Hours: 8:30 a. m. to 4 p. m.

PILES—Painful, itching, and all other ailments of the rectum. Guaranteed cure. No operation. No pain. No expense. Write for particulars. Dr. H. T. Still, 407 Commercial Bldg., St. Louis.

NOTARY PUBLIC.
J. F. FARISH
REPUBLIC BUILDING.

CITY ITEMS.
SALESMEN and saleswomen at Crawford don't worry the life out of you to sell. The goods are the price don't worry you either, but they are such elegant persuaders that you can't help buying. That, however, has always been the way at Crawford's.

SEDGERS WERE DISCHARGED.
No Evidence of Fraud Against the Theatrical Manager.

London, July 18.—Horace Sedger, the theatrical manager, who with his wife, Ethel, an actress, was charged in the Bow Street Police Court June 28 with fraudulently obtaining goods and money from the Countess of Warwick, was given a hearing today and discharged. The magistrate said it was reasonable to assume that Mr. Sedger was not met because the theatrical association on which it was drawn had no money in its coffers at the time the check was presented. Mrs. Sedger had previously been discharged from custody.

BLE SERGE SUITS $10, $12, $15.
OUTING SUITS for $15 in neat stripes and in gray colors.

Perfectly tailored and fashionably cut clothing is offered for sale in our CLOTHING DEPARTMENT.

Every kind of a summer suit—ALL OUR OWN MAKE.

MILLS & AVERILL.
BROADWAY AND PINE.

PARISIAN COUNTESS MIFFED.
Proffer of a Reception to D. A. R. Not Accepted.

Paris, July 18.—An unpleasant difference among the members of the Society of Daughters of the American Revolution, now in Paris, is made public today through a letter from the Countess Spotswood, published in the exposition edition of the New York Times.

In this letter the Countess withdrew the reception which was offered by her during the last annual convention of the society at Washington. The Countess said she renewed the invitation at the meeting of the New York chapter. The daughters of the American Revolution, recently she asked Mrs. Daniel Manning if a date had been fixed for the reception and was told the invitation had never been accepted. Countess Spotswood-Manning therefore prints the letter to justify herself before the members of the society.

In the course of an interview the Countess hints at dissatisfaction between the officers of the national society and the New York Chapter, and says that is the reason for the Countess's withdrawal of the New York's recent. Mrs. Daniel Manning, who is also an appointee of President McKinley.

Mrs. Daniel Manning expressed regret at the publication of the letter, but declined to be interviewed.

Death at Quincy.
Quincy, Ill., July 18.—The wife of J. P. Cox, of Illinois & Cox, a prominent business man, died today of heart failure. Mrs. Cox, formerly residing at Louisville, Ky.

Death at Quincy.
Quincy, Ill., July 18.—The wife of J. P. Cox, of Illinois & Cox, a prominent business man, died today of heart failure. Mrs. Cox, formerly residing at Louisville, Ky.

Death at Quincy.
Quincy, Ill., July 18.—The wife of J. P. Cox, of Illinois & Cox, a prominent business man, died today of heart failure. Mrs. Cox, formerly residing at Louisville, Ky.

Death at Quincy.
Quincy, Ill., July 18.—The wife of J. P. Cox, of Illinois & Cox, a prominent business man, died today of heart failure. Mrs. Cox, formerly residing at Louisville, Ky.

Death at Quincy.
Quincy, Ill., July 18.—The wife of J. P. Cox, of Illinois & Cox, a prominent business man, died today of heart failure. Mrs. Cox, formerly residing at Louisville, Ky.

Death at Quincy.
Quincy, Ill., July 18.—The wife of J. P. Cox, of Illinois & Cox, a prominent business man, died today of heart failure. Mrs. Cox, formerly residing at Louisville, Ky.

Death at Quincy.
Quincy, Ill., July 18.—The wife of J. P. Cox, of Illinois & Cox, a prominent business man, died today of heart failure. Mrs. Cox, formerly residing at Louisville, Ky.

Death at Quincy.
Quincy, Ill., July 18.—The wife of J. P. Cox, of Illinois & Cox, a prominent business man, died today of heart failure. Mrs. Cox, formerly residing at Louisville, Ky.

Death at Quincy.
Quincy, Ill., July 18.—The wife of J. P. Cox, of Illinois & Cox, a prominent business man, died today of heart failure. Mrs. Cox, formerly residing at Louisville, Ky.

Death at Quincy.
Quincy, Ill., July 18.—The wife of J. P. Cox, of Illinois & Cox, a prominent business man, died today of heart failure. Mrs. Cox, formerly residing at Louisville, Ky.

Death at Quincy.
Quincy, Ill., July 18.—The wife of J. P. Cox, of Illinois & Cox, a prominent business man, died today of heart failure. Mrs. Cox, formerly residing at Louisville, Ky.

Death at Quincy.
Quincy, Ill., July 18.—The wife of J. P. Cox, of Illinois & Cox, a prominent business man, died today of heart failure. Mrs. Cox, formerly residing at Louisville, Ky.

Death at Quincy.
Quincy, Ill., July 18.—The wife of J. P. Cox, of Illinois & Cox, a prominent business man, died today of heart failure. Mrs. Cox, formerly residing at Louisville, Ky.

DEATH COULD NOT SEPARATE THEM.

Mrs. Annie Matter Passes Away While Keeping a Lonely Vigil Beside Her Husband's Corpse.

BOTH WILL BE BURIED TO-DAY.

To Be Laid at Rest in Same Grave—Old Army Comrades of the Dead Man Will Serve as Pallbearers.

In a darkened parlor at No. 267 Marion street, lying side by side in two black coffins are the bodies of John H. Matter, 61 years old, and his wife, Annie, 56 years old.

Mr. Matter died from blood poisoning at 1 o'clock Monday morning and his wife died at 2 o'clock yesterday morning from a broken heart, caused by her husband's death. The double funeral will take place at 2 o'clock this afternoon from the family residence, at No. 267 Marion street, where the couple lived for thirty-six years, the period of their married life. They will be laid to rest in the same grave in St. Marcellus Cemetery. The Reverend H. E. Bille, pastor of St. Mark's German Evangelical Church, which Mr. and Mrs. Matter attended for many years, will preach the funeral sermon at the house and conduct the services at the grave.

Not since the cyclone swept over South St. Louis when four members of one family were buried on the same day, has a visit of the "grim reaper" caused more sorrow among the relatives and friends of the departed.

A few weeks ago Mr. Matter injured a toe on his right foot. Blood poisoning followed the injury and the toe was amputated, but too late to save his life. When her husband died Monday morning Mrs. Matter was prostrated with grief. Her only son, Arnold, and many of the neighbors did what they could to comfort the grief-stricken widow, but their efforts were of no avail. Mrs. Matter said that she did not want to live without her husband and she refused to leave his side and from the time of his death she kept her vigil beside his body until he was buried.

Mr. Matter was a member of the First Missouri Volunteer Relief Corps and served in it through the civil war. Only four members of the company survive and they will be among the pallbearers at the funeral today. They are Judge David Murphy, 10, D. Imhoff, Fred Priske and Henry A. Hamill. Mr. Matter is a brother of the company and he has been present at the burial of many of his old comrades. He will come "capped" at the grave of Mr. and Mrs. Matter today. Mr. and Mrs. Matter leave a son, Arnold. He is 25 years old and has always lived with his parents.

Inequalities of Eyesight Corrected.
By Spectacles properly adjusted. Doctor Bond, expert optician at Mermod & Jaccard's, Broadway and Locust, will examine the eyes without charge and fit you properly. Steel frames, $1 and up; gold, $5 and up.

SEEKING FAMILY ESTATES.
Armenian Goes to Turkey in Quest of Former Riches.

Kansas City, Mo., July 18.—Doctor Petros N. Nishkian, an Armenian, will start for Constantinople on Monday next to try to locate the family property of his family, which he lost during the Armenian troubles in Turkey in 1896, when his father, mother and brothers were taken into the city of Smyrna on the belief that they plotted against the Sultan.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

In Armenia, professed to believe that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

Dr. Nishkian was a member of the American Mosaic order of the Mystic Shrine and his photograph with the symbolic word, "Mosaic," was on the red felt of the order, got into the hands of the Turks, who confounded it with the Mount Arrarat in Armenia, and believed that Nishkian was an agent of an Armenian revolutionary plot started in the United States.

"Lowest-Priced House in America for Fine Goods."

On BROADWAY, Cor. LOCUST ST.

A Rare Opportunity!

THIS WATCH 14-Karat Solid Gold,

Only $20.00

Guaranteed jeweled movement, compensation balance, lever escapement, Breguet hair spring. The best value ever offered.

You cannot match this price in America for a guaranteed movement in 14k. solid gold cases.

(We have Watches from $6.00 to $675.)

Mermod & Jaccard's,

CAREFULLY FILLED.

BROADWAY, Corner Locust St.

CHICAGO QUOTATIONS TO BE DISCONTINUED

Telegraph Companies Serve Notice, but It Will Not Affect the Merchants' Exchange.

Arrangement Probably Will Be Made by Which St. Louis Exchange Will Get Figures Direct From Chicago Board.

The St. Louis Merchants' Exchange yesterday received a notice from the Chicago Board of Trade to discontinue the exchange of quotations between the two boards.

A dispatch was received by the Chicago Board of Trade to discontinue the exchange of quotations between the two boards.

This notice is the result of a long and bitter fight on the part of the Chicago Board of Trade to crush out the "bucket shops."

It will in no wise affect the business of the St. Louis Merchants' Exchange, as the leading Boards of Trade of the country will continue to exchange quotations, but will do this in a different manner than formerly.

The quotations probably will be furnished to the exchange in the future directly by the Chicago Board of Trade and will be subject to the same privacy as any other telegrams, in order to prevent leaks, and to prevent the bucket shops from getting hold of the figures.

It is possible to arrange it so that the exchange members will get quotations from Chicago a few minutes ahead of the bucket shops, the bucket shops will not be able to exist.

A similar move was made by the New York Stock Exchange about two years ago, to prevent quotations from being sent out from the floor of the exchange, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

Later, in the case of some Kansas City traders against the Chicago Board of Trade, a decision favorable to the Chicago Board of Trade was secured.

Secretary Morgan yesterday received a telegram from the secretary of the Kansas City Board of Trade, saying that he had received a similar notice from the Chicago Board of Trade, and asking what action the St. Louis Exchange would take. No reply has yet been sent.

A dispatch was received by the Republic from Chicago last night, which says: "Both the Chicago and St. Louis exchanges have decided to abandon their Board of Trade quotations after July 21. The decision to abolish the service is the result of failure to arrive at an agreement with the Board of Directors regarding the terms of the exchange."

The directors of the board considered unjust, and as to the restrictions the Board of Trade desired the telegraph exchange to be discontinued, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

The directors of the board considered unjust, and as to the restrictions the Board of Trade desired the telegraph exchange to be discontinued, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

The directors of the board considered unjust, and as to the restrictions the Board of Trade desired the telegraph exchange to be discontinued, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

The directors of the board considered unjust, and as to the restrictions the Board of Trade desired the telegraph exchange to be discontinued, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

The directors of the board considered unjust, and as to the restrictions the Board of Trade desired the telegraph exchange to be discontinued, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

The directors of the board considered unjust, and as to the restrictions the Board of Trade desired the telegraph exchange to be discontinued, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

The directors of the board considered unjust, and as to the restrictions the Board of Trade desired the telegraph exchange to be discontinued, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

The directors of the board considered unjust, and as to the restrictions the Board of Trade desired the telegraph exchange to be discontinued, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

The directors of the board considered unjust, and as to the restrictions the Board of Trade desired the telegraph exchange to be discontinued, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

The directors of the board considered unjust, and as to the restrictions the Board of Trade desired the telegraph exchange to be discontinued, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

The directors of the board considered unjust, and as to the restrictions the Board of Trade desired the telegraph exchange to be discontinued, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

The directors of the board considered unjust, and as to the restrictions the Board of Trade desired the telegraph exchange to be discontinued, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

The directors of the board considered unjust, and as to the restrictions the Board of Trade desired the telegraph exchange to be discontinued, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

The directors of the board considered unjust, and as to the restrictions the Board of Trade desired the telegraph exchange to be discontinued, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

The directors of the board considered unjust, and as to the restrictions the Board of Trade desired the telegraph exchange to be discontinued, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

The directors of the board considered unjust, and as to the restrictions the Board of Trade desired the telegraph exchange to be discontinued, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

The directors of the board considered unjust, and as to the restrictions the Board of Trade desired the telegraph exchange to be discontinued, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

The directors of the board considered unjust, and as to the restrictions the Board of Trade desired the telegraph exchange to be discontinued, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

The directors of the board considered unjust, and as to the restrictions the Board of Trade desired the telegraph exchange to be discontinued, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

The directors of the board considered unjust, and as to the restrictions the Board of Trade desired the telegraph exchange to be discontinued, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

The directors of the board considered unjust, and as to the restrictions the Board of Trade desired the telegraph exchange to be discontinued, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

The directors of the board considered unjust, and as to the restrictions the Board of Trade desired the telegraph exchange to be discontinued, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

The directors of the board considered unjust, and as to the restrictions the Board of Trade desired the telegraph exchange to be discontinued, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

The directors of the board considered unjust, and as to the restrictions the Board of Trade desired the telegraph exchange to be discontinued, either by wire or over the tickers, but the Stock Exchange was beaten in the suit which followed, and the quotations continued to be sent out.

On BROADWAY, Cor. LOCUST ST.

A Rare Opportunity!

THIS WATCH 14-Karat Solid Gold,

Only $20.00

Guaranteed jeweled movement, compensation balance, lever escapement, Breguet hair spring. The best value ever offered.

You cannot match this price in America for a guaranteed movement in 14k. solid gold cases.